

THE TIGER MOTH REVIEW X THRIVE HOUR

© ETHAN LEONG

ECO-POETRY READING

with Esther Vincent

Awaken your creativity: Spend the morning appreciating nature with eco poems from The Tiger Moth Review

Session #2: 20 May 2020, 10.30 – 11.00 AM

Eco-poetry Reading List:

1. "Humpbacks" by Mary Oliver, New and Selected Poems: Volume One, p. 168-170
2. "Enturtled" by Peggy Landsman (The Tiger Moth Review, Issue 2, p. 50), USA
3. "Elegy for a Silent Stalker" by Ow Yeong Wai Kit (The Tiger Moth Review, Issue 2, p. 17), Singapore
4. "Lament for the Thylacine" by Amanda McLeod (The Tiger Moth Review, Issue 3, p. 16), Australia
5. "Into the Blue" by Dorsia Smith Silva (The Tiger Moth Review, Issue 2, p. 60), Puerto Rico

The Tiger Moth Review is an independent eco-journal based in Singapore, that publishes poetry, prose, art and photography engaging with the themes of nature, culture, the environment and ecology. Our latest issue can be read here. Find out more about the journal here.